Grandfathers leg or something is bothering him, very much I think for he is in the hospital. Connie went down to see him yesterday. Barney is not down there working because of this.

Sunday Muckie and I went out to Maples - you know? Mrs. Doern's brother, - I had a very good time fishing, swimming, and running the outboard. I caught a sunfish three inches long and threw it back. (And that's no fish tale).

I bought myself a clock and a six iron.

I really enjoy the work in the store today I filed cards, and priced hats, thats the light stuff, but when it comes to carrying paint around or assorting and unloading shells weighing seventy pound a box, or pushing Deltas around then it's pretty good, and then of coarse they always have the little cans of white led that weigh 110 pounds. Otis, a very white colored man is the foreman now while Harold is on his vacation. There is also a big strong handsome, clean deaf boy down there he is an awfully hard worker and gets along swell with everybody.

I saw the aquatennial parade with Dick Miers, his cousin and a friend. Wow, some of the girls we saw.

Mr. & Mrs. Weir Jepson

Dear Maw and Pa,

Well first of all as I said before and even though Mother is dubious about it, Mr. Staffer was a very safe and good driver, he had me dial the radio and wair his watch because he did not want to take his eyes off of the road. When we reached Chicago neither I nor Mr. Staffer were tired so we decided to go on, in fact Mr. Staffer was very energetic, he said he would not be going if he felt at all sleepy. After we had gone some way decided to play safe and sleep along the road for an hour, and so we did. Mrs. Staffer slept now and then in the back seat and we were quite refreshed, listening to the radio and making wonderfull time with the road to our-selves never-the-less driving very carefully. Muckie was not expecting me and was down town when I arrived.

Is Jean coming or isn't she, I hope very much that she is.

All one has to do to get an auto licence here is, be fifteen, fill out a card as to identification, - like our yellow cards - and hand them 35 cents.

Everything is fine here, I am having a good time, what time I have to myself, and I know Jean would too.

Love
Bill

P.S.

I'll bet that chair looks like the wrath of gods.

We went out to the club twice to eat supper. I have not seen much of Leon or the Briggs as I haven't much time.

TO THE PARENT

After you have carefully inspected each report please sign your name in the proper space below. The signature should always be made by the same person and in the same way, as signatures are carefully compared each six-week period by the teacher. Should anything appear unsatisfactory you are requested to call at once and consult the teacher concerning it. If your child's marks are below C he is on the danger line and chances are he may not pass unless he improves.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLIES DANCE ON SATURDAY

Younger Set from Tri-City Area
Frolics at Northampton
Country Club.

Favor dances and a profusion of forsythia carrying out the Spring motif in the clubhouse decorations featured the gayest Spring event for the younger set of Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton, when the Junior Assemblies dinner dance was held in the Country Club of Northampton County. Flowers and miniature lapel figures were given as favors in the special dances; while for the lucky number and elimination dances prizes were awarded to Mary Brown and Karl LaBarr of Easton and Seleno Kenley and Jack Hohl of Allentown.

Music for dancing was played by the Nomads orchestra. The affair was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Etter, and Mrs. Howard Lehman, of Bethlehem; Mr. and Mrs. G. Edward Leh and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fenstermacher of Allentown; and Mr. and

Scientific

This tall, good-natured, red head is another prominent figure in our senior class. Bill is one of the few people whose interests range from sports to classical music. The field of surgery beckons to him.

ACTIVITIES: Class President 2; Football 2, 4; Wrestling 2, 3, 4; Track 4.

Dick Schaeffer will find a formula for making synthetic chewing gum.

The firm of Chiadis, Bournias, Sideris, and Chiadis will be busily engaged in painting portraits and landscapes.

Bernadine Mills will be singing "Only a Song Bird" at the Metropolitan.

Bill Jepson will be Bethlehem's school doctor. Please make appointments in advance with his secretary, Belle Reybitz.

Jean Hawk will be a school nurse. Sorry, boys, you'll have graduated by then.

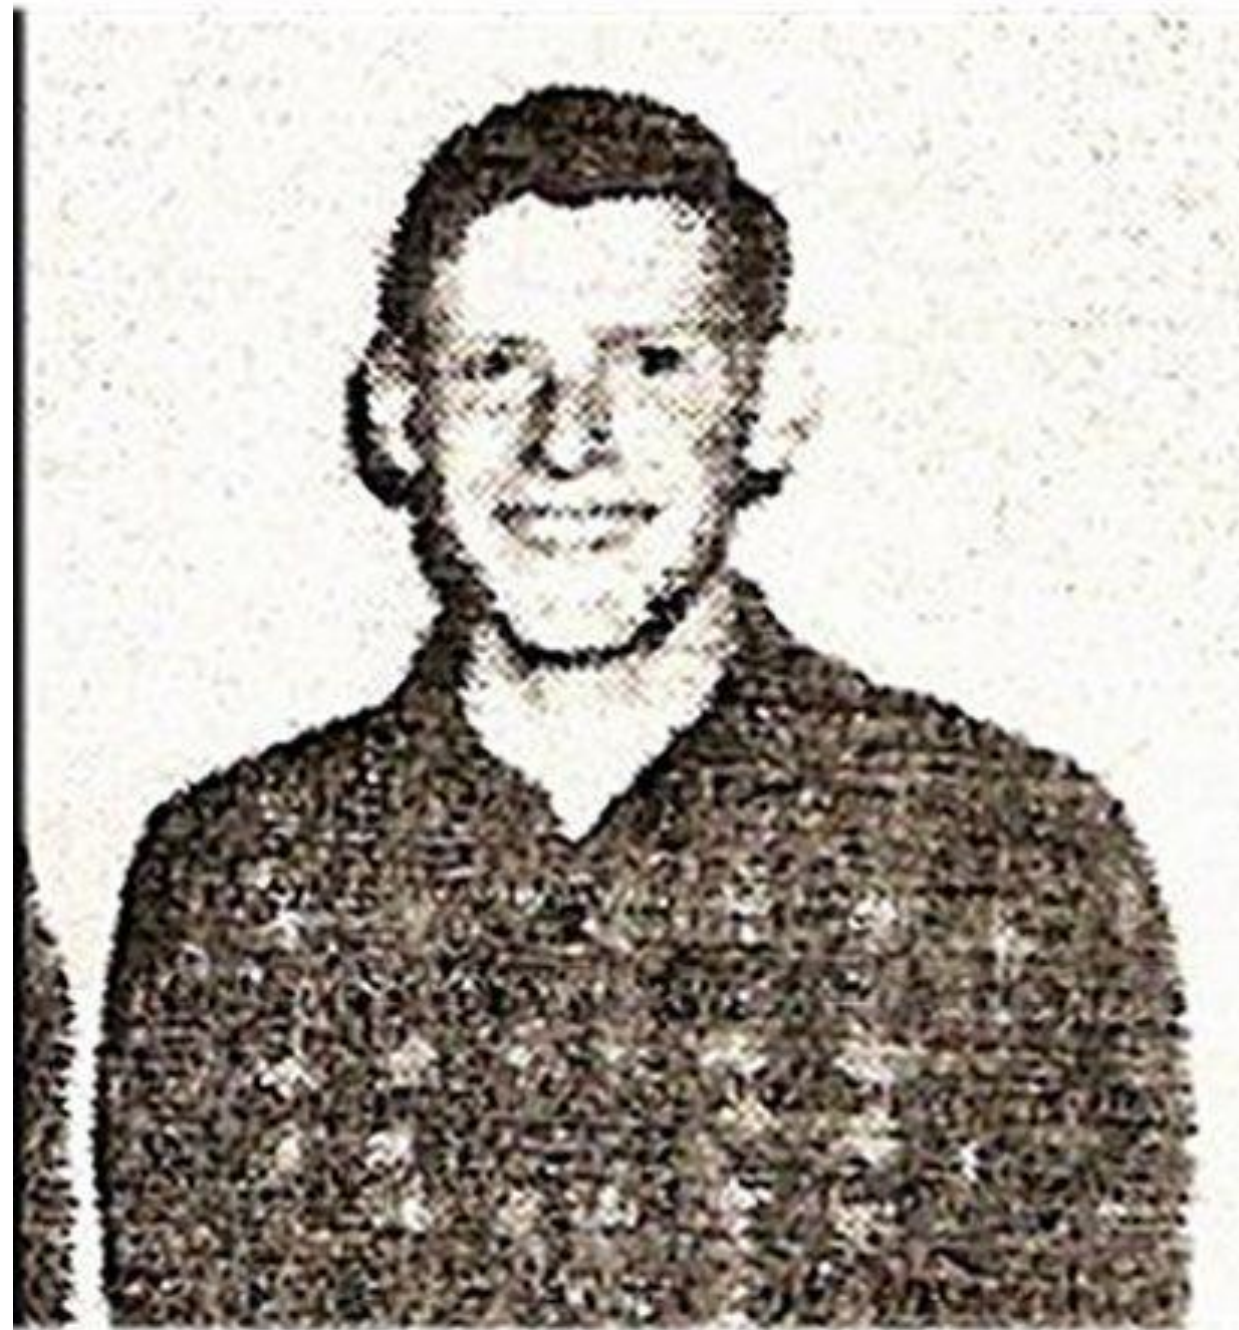

Gowned in black satin, Anne Ballek will be a torch-singer at the Diamond Horseshoe.
